“A Father’s Advice”

At the end of August, Joshua flew to India. It was hard to see my 18-year-old high school graduate leave the country for a year. When we said good-bye, I handed him a letter that I had written him. A part of that letter was a list of personal requests and instructions. My last shot of being a parent before he leaves home. Reading through this list made me think that it is not just good advice for Joshua, but also for many others either leaving home, attending college, or just needing direction in life. Here is my list of requests, instructions, and advice for Joshua.

- Be faithful to read and enjoy God’s word.
- Write your mom and me often.
- Go to church.
- Trust the Lord in your romantic relationships. His timing and plan is truly best. Trust Him.
- Write your mom and me often.
- Don’t compartmentalize your faith or separate it from your everyday, moment-by-moment life. You can live life with great courage in Jesus. You have no need to be scared of anything – for He is with you. He has been so faithful in your life– remember His faithfulness and what He has done.
- Enjoy the journey, but be sure to slow down on the curves or you will crash.
- Know that I will always love you with a love that is not earned nor can be lost. My love for you is not dependent upon what you do or do not do. I just love you. And if I can love you with such love, think how much more does the Father in Heaven love you.
- Live generously.
- Live graciously.
- Practice patience.
- Enjoy the people the Lord puts in your path.

- Be wise in personal body care while in India (i.e food, water, cleaning). In Kenya, I went there thinking I was invincible – and thus had the mumps, malaria, and hepatitis in a period of one month. Don’t be like me in this regard. Being healthy will provide much more numerous positive experiences than being sick. Practice what you know of safe food and proper hygiene. Be vigilant.
- Find a few things that you really enjoy (example: a tea, a food, a place) where you can pause to pray, read scripture, and enjoy the Lord. This is really important.
- Don’t be afraid to express your needs.
- When in dense crowds its ok to push a little to get where you need to go.
- It is ok to not get cheated. Stand up for yourself when people are taking advantage of you.
- It is ok to get cheated. If a person is in real need, pay what they ask, give what they need.
- Champion the poor, push back against those that abuse their position or power.
- Beware of strangers that make promises or give gifts, they want something from you. Don’t agree to anything until the costs are clear up front.
- Protect your passport.
- A sense of humor is the greatest way to deal with chaos.
- Please greet and thank your host family for me.
- And, please write your mom and me often.

“You then, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.” 2 Timothy 2:1

Senior Adult Fellowship
September 21, 2017 Meeting

Program: "Antique Music" by Cole Tabor

Food Provided: The food will be catered by The Scrumptious Company and we will have garden salad, mini chicken burritos, refried beans, Spanish rice, chips and salsa, and accoutrements.

Donations accepted to help cover the cost.

Program: Our program this month will be a return engagement by Cole Tabor and his piano renditions of some antique music. He will discuss the history of some of the songs and give you an insight into the origin of the songs. Since these are antique songs, they are from days gone by, like way back when we were kids growing up and the only problems we had were "who am I going to prom with?", "do I wear a poodle skirt or a broomstick skirt?", or "do I wear saddle oxfords or penny loafers?" These are the songs we sang and listened to on the 78 and 45rpm records, radio and juke box. This will be a time of forgetting the turmoil in the world and turning on your memories and concentrating on the days of our youth when things moved a lot slower and you had time to sit down and enjoy a beautiful sunset or talk to someone without a cell phone ringing or a text message coming in. We will have a great time of fellowship, fun, fond memories and of course "lip smacking" food. Invite your friends and neighbors to come with you and be a part of the festivities. We will be looking for you and hope we will be able to find you with a smile on your face and a song in your heart. If you do not have a "smile" or "song" to bring with you, come anyway and we will give you one of each and you can even take them home with you.

- Roy Maynor

A 6-year-old and his grandma went for a walk one autumn day. "Look at the gorgeous leaves!" Grandma exclaimed. "Just think, God painted each one of them just for us!"

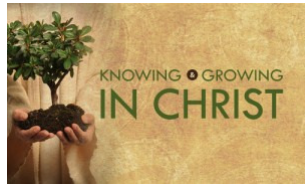

"Yep," said her grandson, "and he did it left-handed."

Perplexed, Grandma asked, "Why do you think God used his left hand to create all this beauty?"

"Because," said the boy matter-of-factly, "we learned in Sunday school that Jesus sits on God's right one."

Family Life Moment

I can remember so vividly my first college soccer game, being out on the field and amidst the murmur of the crowd, there was an eerie silence. This was the first time I could remember my dad not being at one of my sporting events. He had coached years of soccer, and his voice always stood out as a trusted source to tell me when to kick or hold my place as I rounded the last turn at a track meet. Even in noisy stadiums, my dad’s voice reminded me of his presence and his encouragement that helped me to run faster or play harder.

I had so much taken this for granted until all of a sudden I was playing games nearly a day’s drive away from my parents and their absence was noticeable.

It is amazing how the presence of someone can bring strength, encouragement, and confidence. I don’t say this as a means of guilting parents who aren’t able to make all their kids sporting events, but as a reminder of the power of our presence with our kids and families. As I read scripture, I am reminded of the power of God’s presence and the gift we have to experience it regularly. In Exodus 33, God is asking Moses to lead the people into the promised land. Moses, fearful of the proposition and of being alone, asks God how he can know for sure. In verse 14 God says “My presence will go with you, and I will give you rest.” It is the revelation of the presence of God with Moses that leads him forward.

Later we see God’s presence come and settle into the temple, where people can come and worship and offer sacrifices. This is a central location that draws the people of God together around the presence of God. But after the destruction of the temple and the scattering of Israel, Isaiah promised a future savior who would be born named Immanuel, God with us. And Jesus comes, as John 1:14 says, as the “Word became flesh and dwelt among us.” And then even Jesus’ last words on earth in Matthew 28:20 “I am with you always, to the end of the age.”

We have this promise of God’s presence as we live in relationship with Jesus. We no longer have to go to a single location to be in God’s presence, but he is with us wherever we go through the Holy Spirit. With that in mind, we also carry his presence with us wherever we go. And the encouragement that was given to Moses at the brink of a tough transition, God promises to go with us, and from that promise we find strength to go where he is calling us.

I’m grateful for loving parents in my life, but even more, I’m grateful that my parents led me to have a relationship with Jesus, so that when I launched into the world on my own, I was never alone, because a more powerful presence than my dad’s was with me.

How can you point your kids to experience God’s presence in their life? How are you experiencing God’s presence in your own life? How can we resource you to grow in your faith as you experience God’s presence and point your children toward faith in Jesus and teach them to experience his presence in their lives?

This is an ongoing process, and I want to continue to walk with you as we grow together toward maturity in Christ. Thank you for being faithful to walk with me and others who are growing and learning to follow Jesus!

In Christ,
Lee Bosco<><

Annual Sermon Speaker: Trent Eastman Pastor, New Baptist Church

Guest Speaker: Lee Spitzer General Secretary, American Baptist Churches USA

Judy's Shawls will meet on Monday, September 11, at 6:30pm in the Bykota classroom. Anyone who knits or crochets or who wants to learn how is welcome to join us.

Also, on Monday, Oct. 2, we will be having a yarn exchange. If you have yarn you are not going to use we are accepting donations. If you need yarn for that special project, come and see what yarns we have available and hopefully you will find exactly what you need.

"Huntington graduate to spend year in India" was the headline recently on the front page of the Herald-Dispatch. The article told of Josh Eastman's being accepted to Princeton University, one of the country's top schools, and his decision to defer his first year there to travel to India with Princeton's Bridge Year Program for incoming freshmen. There, he and six other students will do various types of service work before beginning traditional classes next year. Josh will be living with an Indian family in Varanasi in North India and learning to speak Hindi.

John Baisden was pictured not just once, but TWICE, in a recent Herald-Dispatch article cooking up hot dogs for more than 75 residents of the Barbourville Veterans Home. Spencer Moore was also pictured in the 2nd photo. The event was sponsored by the East Huntington Kiwanis Club.

On Friday, August 11, our own Mary McClure placed second in the pie baking competition at the West Virginia State Fair. Mary's entry was an apple pear pie.

The Annual Meeting of the Guyandotte Baptist Association will be held at the GBA Camp at Ona, Thursday, September 28. Dinner will be served at 6:00pm with the meeting beginning at 7:00pm. A book detailing the history of the Association and its churches will be available as well as an Association cookbook. Everyone in the church is cordially invited to attend. Our delegates for the meeting are Vivian Atkinson, LaAnna Blake, Becky and Robin Crouch, Jim Daniels, and Dan Jordan.

It's almost here! September 14 at 6:30pm is our annual Ladies Night Out here at New Baptist. This year's theme is Woman of God--Living Loved, as God's Word says in Jeremiah 31:3--"I have loved you with an everlasting love."

We will have a wonderful evening of fellowship with an agenda that includes special music, delicious food, sincere testimony, opportunities for service, heartfelt worship, and our own Christie Eastman as the featured speaker. We will also hear brief summaries of the Bible study courses being offered this fall. If you haven't gotten your ticket yet, call Dolores Adkins at 304-521-5129 or 740-867-3436 for availability.

Bible studies begin on September 20 and sign-up sheets are at the welcome center. Please sign up as soon as possible so books can be ordered. The following studies will be offered:

Wednesday morning sessions: "Discerning the Voice of God" by Priscilla Shirer
"Entrusted" by Beth Moore

Wednesday evening sessions: "Entrusted" by Beth Moore
"Ruth" by Kelly Minter
"Ever After" by Vicky Courtney

The information sheets which many of you filled out have been and will continue to be used as we choose future studies and formats. As you can see, we are offering "Ever After" for our younger moms, and, for those of you who wanted more discussion time, "Ruth" has no video. "Discerning the Voice of God" and "Entrusted" are new studies by two of our favorite teachers.

Hope to see you at Ladies Night Out--and that you are excited to begin new studies in God's Word this month! May the love of Christ fill your heart with joy unspeakable and full of glory!

TIME TO REGISTER FOR MAN CAMP September 29-30 at Parchment Valley. This retreat for men (young men 12-18 must be accompanied by an adult family member) will focus on deepening your walk with the Lord, building friendships with other men in our church, fellowship and just plain fun. In addition to time in God’s Word we will be enjoying “Man Stuff”.

Want to:

- Ride a trail? Bring your 4-wheeler or trail bike.
- Shoot skeet? Bring your shotgun.
- Archery? Bring your Bow and arrows
- Take a hike? Bring your hiking shoes
- Fish? Bring your pole
- Take a nature hike with Tom Pauley? Be ready you never know what he will find
- Play Disc Golf? Bring your favorite disc

There will be plenty of other group activities and games.

One feature we are working on is the BACON ROOM. Open all the time for you to go in and fix your own bacon (it’s a man thing).

The cost is $50 and includes lodging, all meals, programming costs and unlimited bacon ☺.

We will begin Friday evening and finish with dinner on Saturday. Registration forms are available at the Welcome Desk in the foyer.

Looking forward to spending this time with the men of the church. Ladies be sure your man gets to Man Camp.

New Church Pictorial Directory

As our church continues to grow the need for a new pictorial directory is evident. Rather than use an outside company we will be producing our own. The directory will be available on the church website, your smartphone and in print form. Producing this ourselves allows us to regularly update the directory with new families and changes in contact information.

We have good and willing photographers in our church. The plan is to take pictures from mid-September to mid-October on Sundays before and after services. So bring your family and have a family picture made. This is for everyone who attends New Baptist. Digital pictures can be submitted by those not able to have one made here at the church.

We need full participation in order to make this a success. Watch the bulletin for more information.

Four perspective

Because different writers penned each Gospel, the four books offer unique angles and insights. Although the overall message is the same, the human authors’ backgrounds and perspectives shine through every account.

These verses by an unknown writer remind us of each Gospel’s characteristics:

Matthew — Messiah, Israel’s King, sets forth, by Israel slain; but God decreed that Israel’s loss should be the Gentiles’ gain.

Luke, the physician writes of a more skilled Physician still Who gave himself, as Son of Man, to save us all from ill.

Mark tells us how in patient love this earth has once been trod by One Who, in a Servant’s form, was yet the Son of God.

John, the beloved of Jesus, sees in him the Father’s Son, the everlasting Word made flesh, yet with the Father One.

MISSION NEWS

Thank You!!!

July Mission Dinner: Thank you for continuing to be a generous church. The Wednesday mission dinner in July collected money for Katelyn McGuffin's internship with Cru at Marshall University.

August Mission Luncheon: The mission luncheon in August collected over $400.00 for Pastor Dasnis! Pastor Dasnis was able to update us during a Wednesday evening service this past month. It is always a blessing to hear how the Lord is working in Haiti. Thank you for your continued support for his ministry which allows Pastor Dasnis to be a full-time pastor. Being full-time allows him to be available for the congregation daily.

Upcoming Events: Mark your calendar now!

Sunday September 10 – will be our next Pastor Dasnis' Mission Luncheon. As always all donations go toward the ministry of Pastor Dasnis' in Ft. Liberte' Haiti. Pot roast is on the menu! You won't want to miss this.

Wednesday September 27 – Will be our next mission evening service. Please join us for dinner at 5:30 then stay for the evening service at 6:30 to hear about a ministry we as a church support in our community.

Service Updates:

Food Pantry: In July the food pantry continued to server our community in a mighty way. The number of families/individuals this ministry is able to serve is amazing. In July they were able to serve 203 families, totaling 470 people made up of 130 children, 244 adults, 96 senior adults, all for a total of 7,050 meals (they were closed on July 4 otherwise numbers would be even higher). Hygiene kits are being distributed every other month so none were distributed in July. They were also able to serve 33 homeless individuals. The Food Pantry has changed how they are serving the homeless. They are now putting an emphasis on proteins instead of carbs and making sure items are easy to store and prepare. Here is an example of the items given to our homeless: 2 cans of fruit, 1 bottle of juice/Gatorade, 2 cans of meat, 2 cans of stew or chili, 2 cans of soup, 2 cans of beans, 1 jar of peanut butter/month, 1 jar of jelly/month, toilet paper, crackers, snacks (nutria-grain bars or similar, hygiene kit/month, cheese/month. As you can see this is an extensive list to help keep our homeless from being hungry. Our food pantry ministry continues to look for help every week but especially on the 3rd Tues of every month as that is the day food is delivered. If you have a truck that can help pick up the deliveries or you are willing to help unload the trucks please see Joyce Mannon for details on how to become involved. In addition to the large food delivery on the 3rd Tuesday of each month, the food pantry is now also adding an additional box of food for 30 senior citizens each month.

Backpack Giveaway: Continued thanks for your generosity with the back to school supplies. You all always go above and beyond. We were able to donate 100 backpacks full of supplies to the backpack giveaway at Community of Grace Methodist Church. We were then able to deliver 100 backpacks full of supplies to our local schools (Highlawn Elementary, Huntington East Middle School and Huntington High School) to be given to those students in need. We also were able to donate a TON of extra supplies to each school as well.

Service Opportunities:

Fall Festival: The Fall Festival is fast approaching. Candy corn M&Ms and Reese pumpkins have already been spotted in stores. Our annual Fall Festival will be held on Saturday October 28 from 12-2. Last year we were able to welcome 1500 people onto our church property. Through our decorated trunks and animated storytellers 1500 people were able to experience a walk through the Bible with different stories. Those that registered and asked for prayer have been prayed for continually over the last year. This event is a HUGE outreach opportunity for our church. We need EVERYONE to be involved. We need over 100 volunteers on event day, but can use helpers prior to the event as well. The only requirement is a willing heart. If you have that we can find a job for you. Jobs include: registration, set-up/clean-up, greeters, cake bakers, food makers/servers, games, crafts, storytellers, trunk decorators, prayers, follow-uppers (I think I just created that word). If you are interested in helping please fill out the volunteer form at the welcome center or in the bulletin and turn into either the church office or Bethany Cox. WE NEED EVERYONE! Watch the bulletin for more information. We will collect candy donations in October.

We are looking for volunteers to be storytellers for: Adam and Eve, Jonah, Jesus heals the sick woman, Lazarus, Trial and death of Jesus and Heaven. We are looking for someone to decorate a trunk for: Creation, Adam and Eve, Jonah, Feeding of 5,000, Blind man healed, Jesus heals the sick woman, Lazarus, Trial and death of Jesus and Heaven. If you have a story from the Bible you are interested in that is not listed please see Bethany Cox. If you can help tell a story, decorate a trunk or both please do not be shy and volunteer!

New Baptist Prays for the Nations:

Nation of the Month: India

We, as a church, have prayed for India in the past. However, with Joshua Eastman leaving to spend a year abroad in India we wanted to pray for him and the other students he will be with throughout this month. It is always a blessing to pray for one of our church members as they travel internationally, and it is always a blessing to watch the Lord work through them.

You may follow Josh’s journey through his blog online at www.tinyurl.com/joshindia. Please note that he will not have internet access for the first month he is in India, but the blog will hopefully be updated regularly after that.

Missionary Updates:

Reed Family: The Reeds have continued to stay very busy. Grace, the oldest daughter, has started at Marshall University! Prayer for her and her parents are greatly appreciated. JD is currently teaching as an adjunct professor in the Palmer Seminary Masters of Theological Studies Online Spanish Program. He will be moving in an administrative role as well helping as an administrator/student advisor for the Latin American groups. JD also continues to working with the administration of the House of Hope Foundation in Bolivia as they are working to open a second location in Santa Cruz in the coming year or two.

This summer they had three interns in Cochabamba to help strengthen the ministry there. One was our very own, Kasey Madden. Kasey was able to help develop a new website for the House of Hope. Be sure to check it out at www.hohbolivia.org. Way to go Kasey! The Reeds were also able to host two church groups this summer. They partnered with the Emmanuel Foundation (Goretty Jora’s foundation) to build a reclaimed/recycled tire playground for the kids at their farm outside the city. The Emmanuel Foundation is a ministry on the south side of Cochabamba that works specifically with the children of the prostitutes in the red light district. They typically work with about 50 kids per day.

Katelyn McGuffin: Katelyn has raised all of her support for the next year! As Marshall has just started fall classes she is just getting started with her internship. Please be in prayer for her as she engages with international students this coming year.

Spelling spree

A kindergartner was practicing his spelling with magnetic letters on the refrigerator. He'd formed the words cat, dog, dad and mom for his family to see.

One morning, the boy greeted his proud mother with arms outstretched. In his hands were three magnetic letters: G-O-D. "Look what I spelled!" he exclaimed.

"That's wonderful!" Mom said. "Now go put them on the fridge so Dad can see them, too." Happily, she thought, "That Christian education sure is having a great impact."

Just then, a little voice called from the kitchen. "Mom? How do you spell 'zilla'?"

G-O-D . . .

We need VOLUNTEERS! Children's Ministry is a large part of the wonderful service areas at New Baptist Church. Please, be in pray about extending your heart in service to one of these areas:

- NURSERY Helper, Sunday School time
---NURSERY Helper, church hour
---TODDLER and PRE-K helper, Sunday School time
---TODDLER and PRE-K helper, church hour
---SUBSTITUTE helper, to be called on as needed when scheduled helpers are not available.

Helpers needed:

- Teachers
--Room Assistant
--Youth Helper (6th grade to 12th grade). Youth will always be accompanied by an adult and help once a month during the church hour.

If you have any questions about where you may be able to help, please, call/text me or stop me anytime at church! ☺
